THEATRE

Missouri S&T theatre program offers a theatre minor, up to five shows per year, and multiple ways to become involved. Every fall semester we hold an information meeting in Castleman 143 to welcome new students and announce the season. It is held the first day of classes for the fall semester at 6:00 pm. Here you can get to know folks and learn what is in store.

We are most proud of the fact that people can be involved as much or as little as they choose, depending on their course load, and everyone has an equal opportunity to be cast in or work on any of the shows.

It is considered by our 60+ students to be their safe place or second home. We offer independent studies and currently have a Special Topics course: Voice, Diction and Interpretation (THEATRE 2001 and THEATRE 4000). Our courses count as humanities credits.
